Audity

The language I Think In: (breakbeats / Drum&Bass /Vocals)
Audity breathes a distinct human element into the harsh, cold world of synthetic sound with a certain level of musicality often missing from today's artists. These new tunes feature deep, breakbeat-styled grooves underneath lush female vocals (similar to Madonna "Frozen" by William Orbit). An essential release for fans of all things electronica; a must-have for fans of Trance and breakbeat. From drum & bass to deep, discofied house, this is definitely a record for electronic enthusiasts.

Prodigal Sons

Reignite (techno)

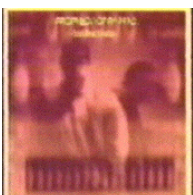

As the forefathers of the techno scene, the Prodigal Sons have led the way for electronic music for over 5 years. This new Prodigal Sons record, Reignite, has been two years in the making and captures the essence of the Prodigal Sons techno sound. Classic P-sons with a groovier feel than traditional techno. Reignite definitely brings back to the roots of the underground sound with 130 beats per minute as an average.

Prophetica

ICONS (Deep Trance)

Prophetica is a new trance artist hailing from the midwest. His deep epic trance has been picked up by mainstream labels Subterranean and Animus Music vinyl labels. He has already garnered the respect and airplay by dance giants Chris Fortier and Gene Carbonale. We expect this first record from Prophetica to explode onto the already huge trance scene.

SOZO

The Walk (Electro-Acoustic Pop/CCM)

The pop duo SOZO consists of former Newsboys keyboardist Corey Pryor and solo performer, Danielle. Their debut release, Purity, on N•Soul Records displayed a Euro-pop/dance style and a potent message of living pure by the grace of God. This new album "The Walk" moves closer to a pop sound and is much more contemporary based with comparisons to Jars of Clay and Out of the Grey. Fantastic 2nd release with a new, harder edge.
